

Appendix 13

Organization and Organization and Extension Committee (1922–1998)

From 1922 to 1950, the committee responsible for organizing new clubs was called the Organization Committee. In 1950 the name was changed to Organization and Extension Committee, and in 1998, was amalgamated with the Membership and Classification Committee to become the Organization, Membership and Classification (OMC) Committee (See Appendix 11).

The Organization and Extension Committee was a highly prestigious committee with several members serving at the highest international level and committee chairmen often serving on the committee for more than one biennium (Dora Neun 1933–35, Celeste Blesse 1937–40, Elizabeth Armstrong Judge 1940–48, Dorothea Radusch 1950–54 and 1956–58, and J. Maria Pierce 1958–62 and 1968–72).
